

Sunday, August 28

Check-in

8 a.m.-noon

Pulver Pavilion, Cotter Union

Please check in at Pulver Pavilion, where you will receive important information regarding orientation program and move in.

Early Bird Continental Breakfast and Coffee*

7-10 a.m.

Pugh Center, Cotter Union

For those who may arrive early, you are invited to visit the Pugh Center for coffee and breakfast treats while you wait for check in to open.

Colby Resources Fair*

10 a.m.-2 p.m.

Page Commons Room, Cotter Union

A number of offices and resources will have representatives to provide information and answer questions.

Project RESCUE*

9 a.m.-2 p.m.

Alfond Ice Rink, Harold Alfond Athletic Center

Stop by the ice rink and shop for items for your room (electronics, rugs, lamps, accessories) rescued when students left campus last spring. A variety of goods available at yard-sale prices.

Colby Computer Connect*

10 a.m.-4 p.m.

Various locations

Representatives from Information Technology Services (ITS) and Student Computer Services will offer assistance connecting computers to the network. Staff will be available in Room 103, Lovejoy Building; First-floor lounge, Dana Hall; Room 104, Leonard Hall; and Room 113, Chaplin Hall, West Quad.

Lunch

11a.m.-2 p.m.

Dana Lawn, Dana and Foss dining halls

Lunch will be available in Foss and Dana dining halls and under the tent on Dana lawn. Lunch is complimentary for students and families.

Explore Colby*

1-1:45 p.m.

*Ostrove Auditorium,
Diamond Building*

For Family/Parents: Academic Life at Colby

Faculty will offer information and answer parent/family questions on academic life at Colby. Facilitated by Associate Provost Margaret McFadden.

*Activities during orientation are mandatory unless marked with an **