

A scenic photograph of the Colby College campus. In the background, a large red brick building with a prominent white clock tower and a dark steeple stands against a clear sky. The building is surrounded by trees, some of which are bare and others with autumn foliage. In the foreground, a calm body of water reflects the building and the surrounding landscape. The water is slightly rippled, and there are some green lily pads visible in the lower right corner. The overall atmosphere is peaceful and scenic.
