

Monday, August 29

Healthy Morning Programs*

7-8 a.m.

Meet outside of Pulver Pavilion

Join your peers for a jog/walk led by Colby student leaders or take a tour of the Athletic Center and weight room.

Breakfast with your CA

7:30-9 a.m.

Meet in CA-designated locations

First Class Welcome

9:15-10 a.m.

Page Commons Room, Cotter Union

Hear remarks on the academic experience from Provost Lori Kletzer.

First Class: Orientation Seminar with Faculty

10-11:30 a.m.

Various classrooms; see assignment in your first-year packet

Attend your first college class at Colby. Make sure you have completed the pre-orientation assignment you received in August.

Lunch

11:30 a.m.-1 p.m.

Dana and Roberts dining halls

An Introduction to a Liberal Arts Education

1-2:15 p.m.

Various classrooms; see assignment in your first-year packet

What is a liberal arts education? You will meet in small groups with faculty to discuss the importance of, and opportunities provided in, a liberal arts education as well as the importance of lessons specific to the liberal arts. Topics to be covered include the foundation of a liberal arts education, precepts of the College, advising opportunities, classroom and academic etiquette, and academic honesty.

Jump-Start Your Career with PPEP

2:30-3:30 p.m.

Page Commons Room, Cotter Union

Meet Colby Career Center staff and learn about our Professional Pathways Exploration and Planning (PPEP) program, a four-year career-development program that will leave you poised to make your mark on the world.

