

Sunday, August 28

1-1:45 p.m.

*Given Auditorium, Bixler
Art and Music Center*

Students Speak

Hear from a panel of Colby students about how their experiences have compared to their expectations, how they found their place in the Colby community, and what they wish they had known as they transitioned from high school to college. The panel will respond to predetermined questions asked by a moderator as well as to questions from the audience. Facilitated by Emily Schusterbauer, director of gender and sexual diversity programs, and Tanya Kureishi '17.

Family Assembly***

2-2:45 p.m.

Lorimer Chapel (overflow in Ostrove Auditorium, Diamond Building)

President David A. Greene will formally welcome parents and family members of the Class of 2020. The assembly will be live streamed in Ostrove Auditorium and seminar rooms in the Diamond Building. Students will have their own opportunities to hear from the president during the day and throughout orientation.

President's Reception for Families***

3-4 p.m.

Museum of Art

A reception with President Greene, senior leadership, faculty members, deans, coaches, staff, and student leaders.

Parents and Families Depart

4 p.m.

Students Line Up for Colby Welcome

4:15 p.m.

East and West Quad lawn

Student leaders assist the Class of 2020 in lining up for the Colby Welcome. Representatives of the Class of 2019 will lead the procession.

Colby Welcome with President David A. Greene

4:30-5:15 p.m.

Lorimer Chapel

Students will process to Lorimer Chapel to hear welcome remarks from President Greene, Provost Lori Kletzer, and Dean of the College Karlene Burrell-McRae '94.